City Academy Book Fair December 6th-11th

Come to the City Academy Book Fair this December

at Salt Lake City's own Sam Weller's Book Store

The author reception on Tuesday evening was a huge success! The authors were very impressed by how many City Academy students came to get signatures and talk about their books. Now the library committee needs you all to come down for the rest of the week to buy some books. For every book you buy, Sam Weller's will donate 20% to City Academy. You can also buy and donate books directly to the City Academy library. Thanks for your support!
